Mr. Harold Weisberg
Route 8
Frederick, Md. 21701

Dear Harold:

Sorry to have missed you in New York.

No doubt the media appearances were gratifying after the Kaplan "Review". I understand John Leonard had second thoughts------.

The copy for the "J. Edgar Hoover Where Were You" blurb was technically poor as Jerry commented.

Of course, the reception was as good as could be hoped when one considers the general situation.

The Seigenthaler edited book is composed of trial studies by three writers including Squires.

Ray was fortunate that he didn't "Escape".

Please call me (679-0800, Ext. 213) the next time you're in the city and we'll have lunch.

Sincerely,

Edwards R. Williams
